LOBBYING

- 1. In M.U.N. Conference, the delegates use Lobbying to gather support for their ideas.
- 2. Lobbying is when you ask other delegates to support your motion, resolution or amendment.
- 3. Lobbying is extremely necessary if you want to form strong alliances.
- 4. This also provides a chance for delegates to “break the ice”, locate potential allies and identify those who share similar goals.

ETIQUETTES

1. Always raise your placards and speak ONLY if recognized
2. Address yourself and other delegates by their portfolio and never by their names.
3. The EB should be addressed as “Chairs AND VICE CHAIRS”.

HOW TO BE AN ODD ONE OUT?

1. Research : a good research makes you well-informed. Study background guide, review previous resolutions, and find trustworthy websites.
2. Team building : alliances need to work together well enough to make a strong bloc.
3. Public Speaking : making a good speech will get you recognized by your fellow delegates and the EB.

4. Listening :-You need to listen and get listened to!

5. Decorum : following basic manners goes a long way when you want to put up a good impression.

6. Punctuality

HOW TO GIVE A GOOD SPEECH??

1. Research : being well-informed and factually correct is VERY crucial.
2. Tone : your speech should be convincing .
3. Fluency : your method of oration will speak a lot while forming blocs.

- OUTLINE YOUR POINTS. Structure your speech into a few main points, and repeat these key points at your conclusion if you have time.
- KNOW YOUR AUDIENCE. Who are you talking to? What are the general sentiments in the committee? Which way is debate flowing?
- BE MINDFUL OF TIMING. Speeches in committee are brief. By being concise, you'll make the most of your time and hold audience's attention.
- Let your passion and interest in the topic show.

HOW TO YIELD YOUR TIME?

Each delegate needs to speak for a specified time set, they cannot exceed this time limit. . However, in case they finish early there is an option to YIELD their time in the following ways:

- 1.Yield to the Chair- You give up your time to the chair, who may decide to ask you questions or may request other delegates to do so.
- 2.Yield to point of Information- other delegates can ask you questions on the basis of your speech.
- 3.Yield to another delegate- here the delegate can yield his / her time to any other delegate who couldn't complete his/her speech in the stipulated time limit. Generally given to allies.

IMPORTANT TIPS AND FYI'S

1. Sponsorers cannot choose to vote for any other draft resolution except for which is theirs.
2. Signatories can choose to vote for any other draft resolution if their mind changes.
3. Blocs - Forming alliances and diplomacies.
4. One must know the ins and outs of an agenda and how it relates to their own portfolio to make the most of the committee.
5. Delegates are advised not to vote in against since the agenda has been set beforehand.
6. Following basic manners goes a long way when you want to put up a good impression.
